Press Release

MecSoft Corporation Partners with SolidWorks VAR in Brazil

Irvine, CA, September 30, 2010: MecSoft Corporation, a global leader in Computer Aided Manufacturing (CAM) software, announced today a VAR partnership with MAX3D Novas Dimensões, located in São Leopoldo, Brazil.

"When engineering and manufacturing businesses in Southern Brazil have a need for CAD/CAM software, they usually contact MAX3D," stated Gerald Hiller, Director of International Sales. "In addition to their strong knowledge of engineering software, they take a leadership position in manufacturing hardware as well."

Established in 2001, MAX3D is a Value Added Reseller for a number of globally branded software products: SolidWorks, Esprit, 3DVIDIA and PDMEnterprise. They will resell VisualMILL-for-SolidWorks, a uniquely integrated CAM solution that was recently awarded Gold Partnership status by Dassault Systèmes SolidWorks Corporation.

"We are very excited to become a VisualMILL-for-SolidWorks VAR for the Brazilian states of Paraná / Santa Catarina / Rio Grande do Sul," stated Nilo Guimarães, President of MAX3D. "The software offers our customers a powerful CAM solution that is extremely easy to use, fully integrated with SolidWorks and at a very nice value."
